Underwhelming (But Friendly) Conclusion

MBS Recap Matthew Graham | 4:59 PM

The present week didn't manage to offer nearly as much excitement as the previous few examples, but that's not necessarily a bad thing considering yields/rates are near the lower boundary of their recent ranges. Today looked like it may have been a higher rate day at the start of the session, but bonds arrested the selling trend and reversed course after dovish comments from Fed's Waller. Europe's close was also beneficial for US bonds, helping us get all the way back into modestly stronger territory before trading levels flat-lined into the U.S. close.

Lock / Float Considerations

The incoming week's calendar is multifaceted in terms of economic data and Fed speakers. Both are worth a reaction in rates, but the data is the market's preference at the moment. On that note, Monday's Services PMI is a capable market mover and introduces some event risk. That said, none of the data is capable of fundamentally altering the narrative. That leaves risk/reward fairly balanced. Technicians and trend followers may note our nearness to lower range boundaries and thus feel a bit more defensive, however.
