Correction to the Correction. Will it Last?

MBS Recap Matthew Graham | 4:27 PM

Hindsight is 20/20 and foresight may have been close enough this week given the classic correction to June's rally giving way to a classic correction of that correction as early as Tuesday afternoon. It wasn't really until Wednesday that bond traders really showed their cards, buying early and often--well in advance of the afternoon's 10yr Treasury auction or Fed Minutes. In fact, it's not clear that either of those events were necessary to today's victory although the auction certainly had a more measurable impact. Data remains scarce on Thursday and foresight gets cloudy again. In other words, anything that was remotely foreseeable has now run its course as we wait to see how narrow the likely-sideways range will be between now and next week's CPI data.

Lock / Float Considerations

Tuesday's half-hearted weakness proved to be a clue about bond buyers waiting to jump back in the market after the past week of weakness. Anything that was remotely foreseeable has now run its course as we wait to see how narrow the likely-sideways range will be between now and next week's CPI data. i.e. risk and reward are more balanced now and the risk tolerant crowd can use Tuesday's weakest levels as a stop-loss in the short term.
