Ultimately Underwhelming Despite Seemingly Significant Data

MBS Recap | Matthew Graham | 4:59 PM

There was certainly the potential for volatility today with the confluence of ADP, ISM, and Job Openings data. But the results ended up being close enough to consensus to obviate any massive reactions. Yields hit their lowest levels in a week after ADP came in slightly softer, but most of the rally was already in place from the overnight session. Stronger ISM and job openings pushed bonds back in the other direction, but not enough to result in bond market losses or negative reprices.

The screenshot shows the MBS Live software interface. At the top, there are tabs for 'TIME PENCING', 'REAL TIME CHART (MAIN)', 'REAL TIME CHART (10Y)', and 'MBS LIVE CHART'. The 'REAL TIME CHART (MAIN)' tab is active, displaying a chart for the 30-Year FOMO 4.0 bond. The chart shows price, yield, and spread data from 106.75 to 106.70. The 'REAL TIME CHART (10Y)' tab shows a similar chart for the 10-Year Treasury. Below the charts, there is a 'LIVE NEWS STATION' with a play button and a 'LIVE & REPORTED PRICES' section. The 'LIVE & REPORTED PRICES' section includes a table for the 30-Year FOMO 4.0 bond and a 'BOND SUMMARY' table. A large play button is overlaid on the bottom of the screen.

Lock / Float Considerations

- With Wednesday's data failing to inspire any significant volatility, attention turns to Friday's jobs report as this week's last big-ticket event. Thursday is a bit of a push, but with rates at 2-month lows, risk averse clients remain in lock mode.
