UPDATE: No Major Reaction to Fed; Waller and Miran Dissent

Newswires follow below.

Here's a link to the before and after.

The Fed upgraded econ activity to "solid" from "moderate." They also said unemployment showed signs of stabilization. The phrase "downside risks to employment rose in recent months" was removed. Little else changed apart from housekeeping edits.

There hasn't been much of a reaction in bonds so far, which is as expected. It's notable that Waller dissented, however, as this could be seen of his way of asking to remain in the running for the Fed Chair nomination. Powell is on deck with the press conference at 2:30pm ET, and that's what we'd be more likely to see any volatility due to the Fed.
