Bonds Scratch Out a Win Amid Dueling Headlines

MBS Recap | Matthew Graham | 3:04 PM

Bonds remain surprisingly willing to react to the most seemingly insignificant war-related headlines. Today it was the much-debated geographical location of Pakistan's lead negotiator, Asim Munir, that set the tone. Bonds rallied on early accounts that he was en route to Tehran and pulled back when other headlines suggested he never left Pakistan. Ultimately, yields trickled just barely into positive territory by the end of the holiday-shortened session. Monday is fully closed for Memorial Day and we're back to watching the news feed on Tuesday.

Lock / Float Considerations

- 5/22/26 -Bonds remain transfixed by war-related headlines and surprisingly receptive regardless of the quality of the news. The clear takeaway is that there's room to rally when peace is official, but also room to sell if the peace process falters.
