Roughly Unchanged After Gradual Weakness

Bonds ended the day roughly unchanged despite this morning's stronger start. With the S&P falling back to the lows of the day, we can't really blame asset allocation trading between stocks and bonds. It's easier to blame a mid-day surge in fuel prices (especially after 11am) which may have been related to headlines regarding U.S. missiles striking an oil tanker docked at Kharg Island. All told, it was still a victorious week with yields ending up slightly lower than last Friday. The week ahead is marked by limited data and the pre-FOMC blackout period. Bonds will remain tuned into oil price volatility and potentially to any big swings in stocks.

Lock / Float Considerations

- 7/17/26 - Roughly unchanged day is a decent showing considering the spike in gas prices and past 3 days of improvement. Risk-tolerant clients have a range to work with between 4.62 and 4.52 in terms of 10yr yields. Risk-averse clients remain lock-biased until bonds show greater willingness to challenge technical floors and build some more serious positive momentum.
