Another Mid-Day Reversal Driven by Dueling Headlines

Market Summary: Thursday, May 7, 2026 - 8:18PM

The overnight session featured a modest but clearly-defined rally in response to hopeful headlines on the Iran war. But as early as 9am ET, a complete reversal was beginning to take shape. Bonds remained in positive territory until the 11am hour when war headlines kicked selling into higher gear. Specifically, reports suggested Iran rejected the U.S. framework that helped bonds overnight. Separate news cited CIA sources, claiming Iran can withstand a Hormuz blockade for months. Selling continued in the afternoon on reports that had more to do with escalation risks (Saudi Arabia and Kuwait allowing U.S. forces to operate from their bases, explosions heard in Southern Iran). All told, 10yr yields were up more than 4bps by 3pm and MBS were down a quarter point.

Negative Reprice Risk Increasing

After several fresh war-related headlines, bonds are moving into negative territory. MBS are now down 1 tick (.03) on the day and more than an eighth from most lenders' rate sheet print times.

10yr yields are up 1.4bps at 4.361.

Mortgage Rates Erase Early Improvement

The day began on a fairly hopeful note for the mortgage market. During overnight trading hours, the bond market improved following a report regarding a peace framework sent to Iran by The U.S.

When bonds improve, rates fall, all else equal. The gains were modest, but they allowed the average lender to set their first rates of the day at slightly lower levels compared to yesterday. Lenders prefer a "one and done" strategy when it comes to setting for the day, but they will make mid-day changes if the underlying market moves enough.

The underlying market began moving more than enough just before the noon hour. Most lenders were forced to recall their initial rate offerings and make upward adjustments. The net effect at the time of printing is that the average lender is back in line with yesterday's levels.
